

In the United States Court of Federal Claims

No. 16-12C
(Filed: September 28, 2018)

TAYLOR ENERGY COMPANY LLC,

Plaintiff,

v.

THE UNITED STATES,

Defendant.

ORDER

Following yesterday's oral argument concerning, in part, the government's motion to dismiss based on primary jurisdiction, the court has reviewed its records and finds it does not have a complete record of the filings currently before the Interior Board of Land Appeals ("IBLA").

In order to evaluate the merits of the government's motion, the court hereby ORDERS the government to file with the court a copy of the IBLA docket sheet together with the substantive filings and any attached exhibits pending before the IBLA by October 12, 2018.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
